

Private jet to New York, stay at the Plaza, sail home on Queen Mary 2. Depart 25th June or 3rd July 2010.

*T*hese very special holidays have been designed for travellers who want to enjoy the finest possible transatlantic travel to and from one of the best hotels in New York during the USA's 4th July Independence Day celebrations. There is a choice of two departure dates. You can choose between flying out and sailing home or vice versa. Just ten passengers will travel on the Gulfstream intercontinental jet in each direction. During your seven hour flight you will be served complimentary cocktails and catering to your requirements by the on board stewardess while you fly at 42,000 feet way above the other transatlantic traffic. You will travel by helicopter between Teterboro airport's private jet terminal and Manhattan, enjoying an aerial tour of the city en route. In New York you will stay at one of the cities greatest hotels, the Plaza. During your stay we have arranged a fabulous 4th of July celebration dinner cruise where you will have the 'best seats in the house' to view the amazing fireworks extravaganza! For your sea crossing you will travel in a luxurious Grill Suite with private balcony aboard the greatest ocean liner in the world - Cunard's Queen Mary 2. A Bath Travel escort will be on hand at all times to help smooth your travel arrangements.

Your aircraft

A Gulfstream G4 intercontinental private jet flying direct from the Signature Aviation private jet terminal at London Luton Airport. Ten passengers will occupy tables of two or four seats. Your aircraft will arrive and depart from New York Teterboro Airport private jet terminal. No check in. No queuing.
